DEPARTMENT HEADS

Ted Hartling, Highway Superintendent

Paving list presented, but as of yet will not be an exact list. County is questioning Beaverkill Covered Bridge design plan, they want to put a 3 ton limit on it but do not know the previous limit. A Beaverkill resident stopped by to extend compliments to the Highway crew for a very efficient job in handling the bridge closing.

Glenn Gabbard, Code Enforcement

Reported on tower work which is busy with upgrades. Mr. Gabbard stated that the conduit boxes & compound space is approaching saturation point with barely room to walk around. The tower sites access roads are in need of upgrade & better maintenance. Mr. Emery expressed his dissatisfaction with the Cell Towers initial promise to land owners. His lawyer is presently working on a case for him regarding a mess involving his right of way. Mr. Gabbard suggested Mr. Emery come in & sign a complaint. It was also discussed to address the Planning Board to push for a change in access roads before renewing contracts.
